

Fourth Annual
Virginia Tech Jewish Film Festival
November 7-12, 2009

Bagels and Grits Brunch
Sunday, November 8 11:30 a.m.
Graduate Life Center
All you can eat brunch-$5
www.vthillel.org hillel@vt.edu

Films

Bagels & Grits Brunch followed by films

Shorts: "Making the Crooked Straight", "Doctor Schneider" and Full feature "Restless" (ADULT CONTENT) A lost father in New York and an abandoned son now grown in Israel - their collision course with destiny and each other.

"A Matter of Size"

November 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 7:00 p.m. and 9:15 p.m.

Lyric Theatre, downtown Blacksburg

Newly unemployed while living at home with his mother in Ramla and banished from his weight-loss program, Herzl finds himself washing dishes in a Japanese restaurant. There, he is introduced to sumo wrestling where size is an asset. With a few large friends he pursues his newfound passion, which transforms all of their lives.

Daniel Pearl Music Day Celebrations

Tuesday, November 10, "Maroon 5" concert in Burruss Auditorium
Daniel Pearl recognized the ability of music to bridge differences among people.

Join us at the movies!

The festival is a wonderful collaboration of campus and community co-sponsorships:

Hillel at Virginia Tech,
Malcolm and Diane Rosenberg Program in Judaic Studies, Lyric Theatre

